

I am requesting that you do not take away New Jersey's Do Not Call list. I cannot count the number of family dinners interrupted due to telemarketers trying to sell products we are not interested in purchasing or services we are not wanting to take advantage of. Please do not make us go back to being interrupted.